

Dr. Shruti Nagar is an Assistant Professor in Accounting and Finance and Faculty In Charge of Corporate Social responsibility cell. She has completed her Ph. D from HNB Garhwal University, University (The Central University) Uttarakhand in 2009. She is B.com graduate and has done MBA (Banking & Finance) and M. Com (Finance). She has qualified UGC NET in management with 70% marks. She has 11 years of teaching experience. She has worked with different reputed universities like Uttaranchal University, IMS Unison University and ICFAI University. She has undertaken various academic and administrative assignments at institution level wherever she worked.

She has conducted workshops on Finance for Non finance executive/students. Her domain expertise spreads over wide range of areas like Accounting for Managers, Financial Management, Financial Institutions and Markets, Security analysis and Portfolio management and many other specialized papers in finance. She has published 15 research papers in blind peer reviewed, referred and indexed Indian and international Journals and has participated in various FDP & presented 16 papers in conferences. She worked as an editor of Pragyaan: Journal of Management, (a biannual Blind Peer Reviewed Refereed Journal, published by IMS Unison University (Formerly Institute of Management Studies, Dehradun), which is also listed in Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory, USA, published its four issues successfully with an international reach. She has done book reviews for Pearson Publications. She has undertaken many academic assignments like syllabus designing and revision, setting up of question papers etc. and worked as external evaluator (for Viva Voce Examination of MBA Program) for Uttarakhand Technical University Dehradun. She remained associated with IGNOU New Delhi since 2009 for various academic assignments and worked as registered evaluator for finance specialisation subjects for their M. Com program. She has worked as resource person in the workshops conducted on Entrepreneurship skills development organized by MSME- Development Institute, Agartala, Tripura. She has an aim to contribute to the academia and industry by constant learning and dissemination of knowledge and skills demanded by growing industry.

shruti.nagar@imdr.edu